23.11.2007 Present: Ms. Anita Dogra, vice counsel for the appellants.
Mr. Bimal Gupta, Advocate, for the respondents.

Pursuant to the orders passed by this Court, the parties have prepared the applications for compromise which are directed to be taken on record. The Registry is directed to register the same.

CMP No. 979 of 2007

This is an application under Order 32 Rule 7 read with Section 151 CPC. Applicants Harvinder Singh, Labh Singh and Mona are minors, and have filed the present application through their mother and natural guardian Harjit Kaur seeking permission to enter into compromise on their behalf. The parties have been litigating over a small piece of land since the year 1990. The parties have arrived at a compromise. The compromise appears to be just, fair and reasonable and also in the interest of the minors.

Keeping in view the facts and circumstances as also the interest of justice, the present application is allowed and Smt. Harjit Kaur is permitted to enter into compromise on behalf of the minors. The application is disposed of.

This is an application under Order 32 Rule 12 CPC. Applicant Gurjeet Singh has attained majority during the pendency of the present appeal. His mother Smt. Harjit Kaur is discharged as guardian having attained majority. He is entitled to and permitted to pursue the appeal in his own right. The application is disposed of.

CMP No. 978 of 2007

This is an application under Order 23 Rule 3 Read with Section 151 CPC. The same has been signed by some of the parties and thumb impression of some of the parties have also been put on the same. The application is accompanied by affidavits of all the parties including that of Smt. Harjit Kaur who is representing the interest of minors. The application is signed by the learned counsel appearing for the parties also. The same is taken on record and is marked as Ext.C. The compromise is in the interest of the parties. The same is in accordance with law.

The statement of Shri Mohinder Singh was recorded by this Court on 15.11.2007, which was duly acknowledged and accepted by the respondents through their joint statement of the said date.

In terms of the compromise Rs.50,000/- has been handed over by the respondents to Shri Mohinder Singh who is present in the Court today. Cheque No. 0294490 dated 30.11.2007 amounting to Rs.50,000/- (Account Payee) of Union Bank of India drawn in favour of Shri Mohinder Singh, has also been handed over to the appellants in the Court today. The application stands disposed of in terms of the compromise. In case of difficulty, the parties are at liberty to approach this Court.

The Court is appreciative of the efforts put in by the learned counsel and more particularly Shri Ashok Chaudhary, Addl. Advocate General who on the request of the Court had assisted the parties to arrive at a settlement.

RSA No. 153 of 1997

In view of the orders passed today in the application under Order 23 Rule 3 CPC, the appeal is disposed of as having been compromised. The compromise shall form part of the decree which is directed to be modified accordingly.
